India Summit 2013

THURSDAY 14 NOVEMBER 2013
MONTCALM HOTEL
GRAND BALLROOM
40 GREAT CUMBERLAND PLACE
LONDON W1H 7TW

With economic storm clouds overhead, India's general election juggernaut is getting ready to roll. Never has the epithet 'land of contradictions' been more fitting. Soon, over 750m people will be able to cast their vote in the world's biggest democracy. But, how will India's slumdogs and millionaires vote? The outcome will be crucial for the business community and India's place on the world stage.

+91 Europe is proud to present the most significant India Summit of 2013, to take stock of how different sectors of India's economy are performing. We will discuss what it will take for the economy to hit top gear again, and how the UK, Europe and America can benefit.
